REAL ESTATE

Vacant Block in Rural Cobargo

This 1,618m² parcel of partially cleared land is nestled just on the outskirts of Cobargo and offers fantastic potential to create your ideal home on an affordable block. Enjoy the scenery of the pastures, green hills and Cobargo's River while only a couple minutes' walk from the centre of town.

Cobargo Village is a historic town in the Sapphire Coast and is known for its artisan workshops, galleries, vintage stores and weekly farmer's market. With such a lovely country close-knit community, it has become an affordable place to consider for many wanting to live near the coast. Bermagui and Wallaga Lake are only a short drive placing Cobargo in the best of both worlds, the Bush and the Beach! The village has all the necessities needed including primary school, cafes, public swimming pool, primary school, fire department, pub, hairdressers, doctor, chemist, bakery, Co-op, general store and many more amenities on offer.

The sale includes a small onsite caravan which has been placed on a cleared level pad, giving you a spot to sit and contemplate what dream home you intend to build (subject to council approval). Call Dee Cramb to book your private inspection on 0421 748 610.
